November 25, 2022

Hello Renegade Families and Friends,

We are excited for the next couple of weeks as we move into our festive winter season.

Please keep an eye out for our all the exciting opportunities coming our way. Next week, students will be preparing for the “Kris Kringle” community event which includes a school wide craft project, festival of lights, and the festival of trees. Please visit our craft table at the craft fair!

Our Christmas Concert and Art Show is on December 8th, 6:30pm! Looking forward to seeing you there.

Attendance Reporting: Please continue to report your child’s absences as we continue to track the number of students who are away due to illness. Thanks!

We are grateful for the amazing students we get to work with each day.
