

RENEGADE NEWS

Week of June 12 - June 16

A Message From Our Administration

Hello Renegade, family!

We had another busy week as we start to wrap up with end-of-year June activities!

This week we celebrated Pride Week, and the core of what we focused on this week was ensuring our schools are inclusive, equitable, safe, and healthy places for all our students, staff, and families. Recognizing the Human Rights of all our students and celebrating the diversity of our communities.

We also had our year-end band concert on Thursday (Thank you to Mrs. Dowhaluk!) as well as our awards ceremony, with Mr. Bruchal as our Master of Ceremonies (Thank you Mr. Bruchal!)

Next week is the last week of regular classes for our High School students, with diploma exams starting on Monday, for English 30 students. Good luck, everyone!

Try to stay cool this weekend, have some freezies, and have a fantastic weekend, everyone!

Sincerely,

Christy Filgate, Principal. M. Ed. She/Her

Words From The Wellness Hub

With final exams right around the corner here some ways you can help support your child at home!

- Encourage your child to create a study schedule that is not overwhelming and includes breaks where they can do something relaxing.
- Remain positive and hopeful!
- Let them know their feelings around exam time are valid and normal, but also offer support and solutions where possible.
